WHERE TO GO WINE TASTING IN NAPA VALLEY WITHOUT A RESERVATION

By Esther Mobley, April 8, 2019

Make sure to try the Riesling at Bouchaine, if available. | Gabrielle Lurie / Special to The Chronicle

While you're in Carneros, stop by Bouchaine, one of the premiere Pinot Noir producers in this Cabernet-centric county. The luxurious outdoor garden is restricted to wine club members only, but anyone can stop into the casual tasting bar ($20 for the estate tasting). In addition to the single-vineyard Pinot Noirs, look out for Bouchaine's intriguing Pinot Meunier.
